- What sections of citizen rights interests us. An idea to discuss could be to pick a field of rights that interest each of our organizations. So for example, Dissens could be interested in the rights for sexuality and gender identity or migration rights. We would then look at the rights of European citizens related to this and find ways to implement these rights. We would ask the questions:
 - What is the current state of these rights?
 - How can they be implemented?

In the last meeting, we talked about developing action/actions that we would make in the coming meetings. How would we like to proceed with this? (all partners)
